Code of Conduct for Young Players

Treat team-mates, coaches, umpires, administrators and opponents with respect.

Have fun, reach for the top and always try your best.

Umpires are there to interpret the rules for you, accept their decisions.

Never use bad language or insult opponents, coaches, umpires, administrators or spectators.

Do not try to gain an unfair advantage over opponents.

Enjoy yourself, know the rules of Netball and play by the spirit of the game.

Realise that without opponents, there wouldn't be a game.

Remember .....

- A stranger is someone you do not know. You must never go anywhere with anyone you don't know. Always ask your parents/carers if it is OK to go with someone.
- Other people, even relations, are not always good. They can hurt, bully and upset young people, so you must be careful. Good adults do not ask young people to keep secrets. You must tell.
- If you tell your parents/carers or coach that you are going somewhere, you should always go there. If you change your mind, you should let them know before you go.
- Your body belongs to you and the parts of your body that are covered by a swimming costume are private and shouldn't be touched. Sometimes a doctor or nurse might have to touch there, but your parents/carers must always be there. If not, you can ask for someone else to be there.
- If anyone does anything you don't like, you must tell an adult you trust. If they don't believe you, you must tell another adult until you are believed.

You should always know your address and telephone number, and know how to make a reversed charge call should you need picking up, or are in any sort of trouble.

If your parents/carers send someone to pick you up from the Netball club, they should use a secret code which you have arranged. Your parents/carers should let your coach know if someone else is picking you up.

If you see a friend getting into a strange car, or going off with a stranger, you must shout to them not to go, and tell an adult immediately.

It is always OK to say 'NO' to someone, even an adult, who is making you feel uncomfortable.

Shout and run away if someone frightens you or follows you. Go towards places where there are people or knock on someone's door and ask for help.

Remember keeping safe is the important thing and you can break normal rules to stay safe.
